

I'm really impressed that you stood up to the thousands of citizens who protested this ruling, and stuck to defending your core constituency. Those gigantic media corporations can rest assured that what they have bought has stayed paid for -- you didn't fold under pressure. Congratulations! You are part of what makes democracy NOT work in America today.